

Australian Government

Condolences for Her Majesty The Queen

1926 - 2022

Following the death of Her Majesty The Queen, please leave your message of condolence using this form.

Condolences will be sent to Buckingham Palace and archived by the Commonwealth and may be displayed at its national institutions, forming part of the lasting record of Australia's close relationship with The Queen over many decades.

Postal Address

Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet, Condolences Form
PO Box 6500, Canberra ACT 2600, Australia

These messages of condolence were collected at:

Privacy Statement: The Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet (the Department) is collecting your personal information to provide messages of condolence to Buckingham Palace following the death of Her Majesty The Queen. These messages will be archived by the Commonwealth and may be displayed at its national institutions to form a lasting record of this moment in history.

Your message (including any personal information that you choose to provide) may be disclosed to a third party for the purposes of producing a hard copy condolence book. Apart from this, the Department will not provide the information collected from you to anyone else outside the Department other than to Buckingham Palace and the National Library of Australia for archival and display purposes, unless you have given consent for us to do this, or we are authorised or required to do so by law.

Australian Government

First Name

Message of Condolence

Surname

Suburb/Town

Signature and date

First Name

Message of Condolence

Surname

Suburb/Town

Signature and date

Condolences for Her Majesty The Queen

1926-2022

Collected from