License and Activation Key

Stata Software

This License and Activation Key is an important document. Three pieces of information on this document — the serial number, code, and authorization — will be required during the installation process of the software you have licensed from StataCorp LP (“StataCorp”), as further described below.

This document is valuable proof of purchase for your software license. You should store this document in a safe place for record keeping.

Licensed software:	Stata/SE 14
License type:	Single-user
License term:	Perpetual
Serial number:	s 47E(d)
Code:
Authorization:

---

L represents the letter L

O represents the letter o

1 represents the number one

0 represents the number zero

Note: When you type your code and authorization into the computer, you may type in lowercase or uppercase letters; it does not matter. You may also omit or add spaces as you wish.

Notice to user: Please read the following carefully. By installing the software and entering the Activation Key set forth in this document into your computer and unlocking the software, you confirm that you agree to be bound by the terms and conditions of StataCorp’s then-current Software End-User License Agreement (as amended from time to time) (“Software License”). If you do not agree to be bound by all the terms and conditions of the Software License, do not enter the codes in this document or otherwise install or use the software. You must return the software to StataCorp or the authorized reseller from whom you purchased it, and your money will be refunded if returned within 30 days of the date of purchase.

The terms of the Software License can be accessed on the StataCorp website at the following URL: <http://www.stata.com/order/end-user-license-agreement>. An electronic copy of the Software License is also included on the installation media. This software is protected by United States copyright law and international treaty provisions.

Hi s 22 - yes please go ahead with your proposal - 2 licences of the cheaper version and then we'll see how we go.
Thanks
Tara

Hi Tara,

I just had a meeting with IT and now have indicative quotes for STATA.

We can get STATA SE for $2,800 - that's for a single license.

There is a faster version called STATA MP which is better able to handle large dataset. It's $4,185, but would also need a better computer, which would add to the cost.

I think we can get away with two licenses of the cheaper version. If we start to work with really large datasets and things are unbearably slow, then we could look to upgrade one license later.

Once you give me the go ahead I can get the procurement process started.

Happy to discuss if you'd like more detail.

Thanks.
