Paul: a related matter has arisen today. The PM has asked Assistant Minister Morton to have oversight of the Global Talents Taskforce, located in the Department of Home Affairs. This would require Mr Morton being sworn to administer the Dept of Home Affairs. If you agree, we can aim to incorporate this change of arrangements in the same correspondence between PM and GG as that for Assistant Minister Landry.

- b. Assistant Minister Landry to administer the National Office of Child Safety (NOCS) within the Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet (PM&C). Under current arrangements Assistant Minister Morton is the Minister responsible for NOCS.

Dear Assistant Minister

I have decided to transfer responsibility for the National Office of Child Safety (NOCS) from the Assistant Minister to the Prime Minister and Cabinet, the Hon Ben Morton MP, to you as the Assistant Minister for Children and Families.

Established on 1 July 2018, the creation of NOCS was in response to the Royal Commission into Institutional Responses to Child Sexual Abuse and has responsibility for administering the Australian Government's child safety policies.

I have recommended to the Governor-General that you be cross-sworn to the Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet to ensure you can oversee NOCS. This change aligns with your responsibilities for children and families.

I look forward to continuing to work with you and progressing a range of initiatives to keep children safe in response to recommendations from the Royal Commission.

I have provided a copy of this letter to Mr Morton for information.

CANBERRA ACT 2600

Dear Parliamentary Secretary

As you would be aware, the instruments of appointment for Assistant Ministers refer to them as Parliamentary Secretaries. This is because of the requirements of the Ministers of State Act 1952. However, you should and can use the titles of Assistant Minister for Regional Tourism and Assistant Minister for Children and Families in all your official duties, including in the exercise of executive and statutory powers and in your parliamentary activities.

If there is ever any question about whether you were acting as a Parliamentary Secretary when using your Assistant Minister title, this letter could be used as evidence that you are able to use your Assistant Minister title when performing that office. It may therefore be useful for the Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade, the Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet, and the Department of Social Services to retain copies of this letter.

There may also be circumstances (e.g. in cases where the exercise of statutory powers is frequently contested) when you choose to use your Parliamentary Secretary title, as well as your Assistant Minister title, so as to avoid any dispute and any risk of invalidity.

Yours sincerely
