March Newsletter

The 2019 Aon Sydney International Rowing Regatta is coming!

Welcome to March's Rowing Australia Newsletter. With the 2019 Aon Sydney International Rowing Regatta just around the corner, this month's newsletter focuses on what to expect at the regatta, along with details on the exciting off-water activities on offer.

Don't forget this year's Aon Sydney International Rowing Regatta will be a celebration of the Centenary of the King's Cup with details of what's happening throughout the week detailed below - including of course the King's Cup Breakfast on Friday 29 March.

We look forward to keeping you up to date throughout the week of SIRR 2019, with daily newsletters throughout the regatta!

KING'S CUP CENTENARY CELEBRATIONS

Centenary Celebrations at SIRR - Book Now

Rowing Australia is hosting a commemorative breakfast function on the morning of Friday 29 March, 7:30am-9am in the RowUnion marquee at Nationals in Penrith.

The breakfast will preview a two hour feature documentary and launch a commemorative book on the incredible history of the King's Cup, with the book being available for purchase at the Championships.

Package holders will also get access to a historical exhibition that details the narrative of the King's Cup as well as witness the Interstate Ceremony on the Sunday which will feature a full military presence amongst other festivities.

The package is $195 and only available online, it includes:

- Entry to SIRR for Friday, Saturday and Sunday only
- 1x ticket to special commemorative breakfast held on Friday morning at SIRR (tickets only available through this package)
 - 2 x drink vouchers to RowUnion
 - Commemorative Pin

Breakfast only tickets ($75) are available for those who will already have accreditation passes. Please email s 47F at s 47F @rowingaustralia.com.au for the code to access this ticket.
