Part 1—Preliminary

1 Name

This instrument is the Remuneration Tribunal (Judicial and Related Offices—Remuneration and Allowances) Determination 2018.

2 Commencement

- (1) Each provision of this instrument specified in column 1 of the table commences, or is taken to have commenced, in accordance with column 2 of the table. Any other statement in column 2 has effect according to its terms.

| Commencement information | | |
|---------------------------------|--------------|--------------|
| Column 1 | Column 2 | Column 3 |
| Provisions | Commencement | Date/Details |
| 1. The whole of this instrument | 1 July 2018. | 1 July 2018 |

Note: This table relates only to the provisions of this instrument as originally made. It will not be amended to deal with any later amendments of this instrument.

- (2) Any information in column 3 of the table is not part of this instrument. Information may be inserted in this column, or information in it may be edited, in any published version of this instrument.

3 Authority

This instrument is made under subsections 7(3), (3AA), (4) and (4B) of the Remuneration Tribunal Act 1973.

4 Determination supersedes previous determination

This instrument supersedes Determination 2017/09: Judicial and Related Offices—Remuneration and Allowances.

5 Schedules

Each instrument that is specified in a Schedule to this instrument is amended or repealed as set out in the applicable items in the Schedule concerned, and any other item in a Schedule to this instrument has effect according to its terms.

6 Definitions

7 Administration of this instrument

An authority administering this instrument:

- (a) is to pay to an office holder any annual amount specified in proportion (pro rata) to the office holder's period of service during a year; and

Part 1 PreliminarySection 8

- (b) may issue procedural instructions to assist in the implementation of this instrument; and
- (c) may elect to apply the same instructions (including policies or procedures in relation to the administration of recreation leave) as the authority does for employees, except where those instructions are not in accordance with this instrument.

8 Certain AAT members not covered by this instrument

This instrument does not apply to a member of the AAT to whom item 5 of Schedule 9 to the Tribunals Amalgamation Act 2015 applies.

Note 1: Under item 5 of Schedule 9 to the Tribunals Amalgamation Act 2015, a person who was, immediately before 1 July 2015, a member of the Migration Review Tribunal, the Refugee Review Tribunal or the Social Security Appeals Tribunal is taken to hold office as a member of the AAT for the balance of their term of appointment that remained before that date.

Note 2: For the remuneration and allowances of such members, see the Remuneration Tribunal (Remuneration and Allowances for Holders of Full-time Public Office) Determination 2018 and the Remuneration Tribunal (Remuneration and Allowances for Holders of Part-time Public Office) Determination 2018.

Division 3—Vehicle allowance12 Vehicle allowanceChief Justice of the High Court*

- (1) In addition to a Commonwealth car-with-driver service, the Chief Justice of the High Court is allowed annually:
 - (a) a private plated vehicle, that is generally made available by the Commonwealth for the purpose, and is not a luxury car, leased in accordance with the FVS Policy; or
 - (b) reimbursement for private vehicle running costs incurred by the Chief Justice up to $10,850.

Judges

- (2) A Judge, other than the Chief Justice of the High Court of Australia, who has elected for the time being to forgo the entitlement, either in the Judge's city of residence or in the city in which the principal registry of the Judge's court is situated, to a regular Commonwealth car-with-driver service, is allowed annually in that city and as the alternatives to that service:
 - (a) a private plated vehicle, that is generally made available by the Commonwealth for the purpose, and is not a luxury car, leased in accordance with the FVS Policy; or
 - (b) reimbursement for private vehicle running costs incurred by the Judge up to $10,850.

Federal Circuit Judges

- (3) A Federal Circuit Court Judge is allowed annually:
 - (a) a private plated vehicle, that is generally made available by the Commonwealth for the purpose, and is not a luxury car, leased in accordance with the FVS Policy; or
 - (b) reimbursement for private vehicle running costs incurred by the Judge up to $10,850.

Election of vehicle allowance

- (4) During a year, the Chief Justice of the High Court, a Judge or a Federal Circuit Court Judge may elect to vary the officer's election under subsections (1), (2) or (3) to, or from, a Commonwealth leased vehicle from, or to, reimbursement for the running costs of a private vehicle if no additional administrative or other expenses are incurred by the Commonwealth as a result.

No cashing out of vehicle allowance

- (5) The value of the entitlement allowed under subsections (1), (2) or (3) may not be taken as cash, except to the extent that reimbursement is claimed in accordance with paragraph (1)(b), (2)(b) or (3)(b).

Part 2 Judicial officers
Division 3 Vehicle allowance

Section 12

Definitions

(6) In this section:

Commonwealth car-with-driver service means the arrangements for the use of a Commonwealth car-with-driver established, from time to time, by the Attorney-General with:

- (a) the Chief Justice of the High Court; and
- (b) the Chief Justice of the Federal Court; and
- (c) the Chief Justice of the Family Court;

for Judges of those courts.

FVS Policy (short for Fleet Vehicle Selection Policy) means the Department of Finance's policy on the selection of passenger vehicles for the Australian Government Fleet.

Judge means one of the following:

- (a) a Justice of the High Court;
- (b) a Judge of the Federal Court;
- (c) a Judge of the Family Court.

luxury car means a car the value of which exceeds the luxury car tax threshold (for non-fuel-efficient cars) mentioned in subsection 25-1(3A) of the A New Tax System (Luxury Car Tax) Act 1999.

principal registry means:

- (a) in the case of the High Court—the Registry of the Court; or
- (b) in the case of the Federal Court—the Principal Registry of the Court; or
- (c) in the case of the Family Court—the Principal Registry of the Court.

private vehicle running costs does not include expenditure relating to the acquisition, leasing or hire of any vehicle.

Division 4—Recreation leave and salary packaging for Federal Circuit Court Judges13 Purpose of this Division

This Division is made for the purposes of subsection 7(3AA) of the Act.

14 Recreation leave arrangements—general

- (1) The recreation leave entitlements of a Federal Circuit Court Judge who was appointed on or after 1 January 2018 are to be determined in accordance with this section.

Appointment year

- (2) The Judge, for the year (the appointment year) the Judge is appointed in, is entitled to an amount of recreation leave, accruing at the time of the Judge's appointment, of the number of weeks calculated in accordance with the following formula:

$$\frac{\text{Number of days in the appointment year for which the Judge will be appointed}}{\text{Number of days in the appointment year}} \times 6 \text{ weeks}$$

Years after appointment year

- (3) The Judge is entitled to 6 weeks of recreation leave accruing on 1 January of each year after the appointment year.

Expiration of recreation leave

- (4) The Judge is entitled to recreation leave accrued under this section only in the year in which the leave accrued.

Payment of unused recreation leave on leaving office

- (5) The Judge is to be paid on leaving office as though the Judge were then to take the balance of the recreation leave to which the Judge is entitled.

15 Recreation leave arrangement—transitional

- (1) Subject to section 16, this section applies to a Federal Circuit Court Judge who was appointed before 1 January 2018.

Accrual of recreation leave

- (2) The Judge is entitled to 4 weeks of recreation leave per year of service accruing on 1 January each year.

Part 2 Judicial officersDivision 4 Recreation leave and salary packaging for Federal Circuit Court JudgesSection 16

Cashing out of recreation leave

- (3) The Judge is eligible to cash out part of the Judge's recreation leave if:
- (a) the Judge has accrued more than 4 weeks of recreation leave; and
 - (b) the Judge takes an amount of leave equal to or greater than the amount of leave being cashed out; and
 - (c) the Judge cashes out a maximum of 2 weeks' recreation leave in any year.

Additional recreation leave

- (4) The Judge is eligible to elect to purchase 1, 2, 3 or 4 weeks' additional leave per year.
- (5) An amount will be deducted from the base salary of the Judge, dependent on the amount of leave purchased and the Judge's salary, which will be reflected in the Judge's regular salary payments.
- (6) Purchased leave counts as service for all purposes.

Payment of unused recreation leave on leaving office

- (7) The Judge is to be paid on leaving office as though the Judge were then to take the balance of the Judge's recreation leave.

16 Election by certain Federal Circuit Court Judges to be covered by section 14*Changing to recreation leave arrangements under section 14*

- (1) This section applies to a Federal Circuit Court Judge if the Judge was appointed before 1 January 2018.
- (2) At any time, the Judge may elect to be covered by the recreation leave arrangements set out in section 14 instead of the arrangements set out in section 15. The election takes effect on 1 January following the election.
- (3) The Judge may make only one election under subsection (2).
- (4) The Judge retains the balance of the Judge's recreation leave that had accrued immediately before the election took effect but, subject to subsection (6), is entitled to this balance only in accordance with subsection 14(5).

Revoking election

- (5) At any time, the Judge may revoke the election made under subsection (2). The election takes effect on 1 January following the revocation.
- (6) The Judge retains the balance of the Judge's recreation leave mentioned in subsection (4) and is entitled to this balance in accordance with section 15.

17 Salary packaging for Federal Circuit Court Judges

A Federal Circuit Court Judge may elect to take benefits in lieu of base salary, in accordance with authority policies and procedures on salary packaging, if:

Judicial officers Part 2
Recreation leave and salary packaging for Federal Circuit Court Judges Division 4

Section 17

- (a) the election is consistent with relevant taxation laws and rulings or guidelines applicable to salary packaging schemes issued by the Australian Taxation Office; and
- (b) providing the benefit would not result in a cost to the Commonwealth (including any fringe benefits tax) that would not be incurred if benefits able to be taken as salary were taken as salary.

Part 3 Full-time office holders

Division 1 Application of this Part

Section 18

Part 3—Full-time office holders

Division 1—Application of this Part

18 Application of this Part

This Part applies to a person (a Part 3 office holder) who:

- (a) holds an office specified in column 1 of Table 3A; and
- (b) was appointed to that office on a full-time basis.

Division 2—Remuneration19 Meaning of *total remuneration

- (1) For the purposes of this instrument, the total remuneration of a Part 3 office holder is the amount, per year, in column 2 of Table 3A.
- (2) The total remuneration of a Part 3 office holder represents the value, calculated at the total cost to the authority of the office holder (including fringe benefits tax), of the following in relation to the office holder:
 - (a) salary, allowances and lump sum payments;
 - (b) benefits;
 - (c) the employer superannuation contribution.
- (3) However, the total remuneration of a Part 3 office holder does not include the following:
 - (a) the value of facilities provided as business support that are not required to be included in total remuneration under section 28;
 - (b) reimbursement of expenses incurred on geographic relocation following appointment as an office holder, in accordance with authority policies and practices where approved by the authority;
 - (c) assistance for the offices of Chief Judge Advocate and the Registrar of Military Justice (see section 29);
 - (d) travel expenses and allowances under the official travel determination;
 - (e) payment in lieu of recreation leave in accordance with section 30;
 - (f) compensation for early loss of office in accordance with the Remuneration Tribunal (Compensation for Loss of Office for Holders of Certain Public Offices) Determination 2018 (or any determination that supersedes that determination).

20 Remuneration and benefits not to be supplemented

The amount of total remuneration to a Part 3 office holder under Table 3A is exhaustive of the remuneration and significantly-related benefits payable to a Part 3 office holder, to the extent that the Tribunal is empowered to determine such remuneration and benefits. The amount of total remuneration to which the office holder is entitled under this Division must not be supplemented by an authority other than the Tribunal if to do so would be inconsistent with this instrument.

21 Total remuneration

The following table (Table 3A) sets out, for a holder of each office in column 1:

- (a) the total remuneration, per year, of the Part 3 office holder; and
- (b) the travel tier that applies to the Part 3 office holder for the purposes of the official travel determination.

Part 3 Full-time office holdersDivision 2 Remuneration

| Military Justice System—Registrar of Military Justice | $270,510 | 2 |

22 Part-time work

- (1) If a Part 3 office holder's authority has approved the office holder to perform the duties of the office on a part-time basis, the total remuneration for that office is to be paid on a pro rata basis in accordance with the proportion of full-time hours worked.
- (2) However, if the proposed hours are less than 60% of the full-time hours, prior agreement of the Tribunal is required for the level of remuneration.

23 Remuneration packaging

- (1) Subject to this Part, a Part 3 office holder may elect to receive the benefit of the total remuneration, other than the employer superannuation contribution, as salary or a combination of salary and benefits if:

Section 23

- (a) the election is consistent with relevant taxation laws and rulings or guidelines applicable to salary packaging schemes issued by the Australian Taxation Office; and
 - (b) providing the benefit would not result in a cost to the authority (including any fringe benefits tax) that would not be incurred if the office holder received the remuneration in the form of salary.
- (2) To avoid doubt, a superannuation contribution made as a result of an election by a Part 3 office holder under subsection (1) does not form part of the employer superannuation contribution for the office holder.

Part 3 Full-time office holdersDivision 3 SuperannuationSection 24

Division 3—Superannuation24 SuperannuationCommonwealth Superannuation Scheme*

- (1) For a Part 3 office holder who is a member of the CSS:
- (a) the office holder's annual rate of salary for the purposes of the CSS is the office holder's superannuation salary; and
 - (b) for the purposes of paragraph (a) of the definition of employer superannuation contribution in section 6, the value attributed to the employer superannuation contribution for the office holder is an amount equal to 15.4% of the office holder's superannuation salary.

Note: For the definition of superannuation salary for a Part 3 office holder who is a member of the CSS, see section 25.

Public Sector Superannuation Scheme

- (2) For a Part 3 office holder who is a member of the PSS:
- (a) the office holder's basic salary for the purposes of the PSS is the office holder's superannuation salary; and
 - (b) the amount of the office holder's recognised allowances for the purposes of the PSS is nil; and
 - (c) for the purposes of paragraph (a) of the definition of employer superannuation contribution in section 6, the value attributed to the employer superannuation contribution for the office holder is an amount equal to 15.4% of the office holder's superannuation salary.

Note: For the definition of superannuation salary for a Part 3 office holder who is a member of the PSS, see section 25.

Defence Force Retirement and Death Benefits

- (3) For a Part 3 office holder who is a member of the DFRDB:
- (a) the office holder's annual rate of salary for the purposes of the DFRDB is the office holder's superannuation salary; and
 - (b) for the purposes of paragraph (a) of the definition of employer superannuation contribution in section 6, the value attributed to the employer superannuation contribution for the office holder is an amount equal to 15.4% of the office holder's superannuation salary.

Note: For the definition of superannuation salary for a Part 3 office holder who is a member of the DFRDB, see section 25.

Military Superannuation and Benefits Scheme

- (4) For a Part 3 office holder who is a member of the MSBS:
- (a) the office holder's annual rate of salary for the purposes of the MSBS is the office holder's superannuation salary; and

Section 25

- (b) for the purposes of paragraph (a) of the definition of employer superannuation contribution in section 6, the value attributed to the employer superannuation contribution for the office holder is an amount equal to 15.4% of the office holder's superannuation salary.

Note: For the definition of superannuation salary for a Part 3 office holder who is a member of the MSBS, see section 25.

Public Sector Superannuation Accumulation Plan

- (5) For a Part 3 office holder who is a member of PSSAP, the office holder's superannuation salary for the purposes of the Superannuation (PSSAP) Trust Deed is the office holder's ordinary time earnings (within the meaning of the Superannuation Guarantee (Administration) Act 1992).

Other superannuation funds

- (6) For a Part 3 office holder who is a member of any other superannuation fund, the employer superannuation contribution is the minimum contribution that would, under section 23 of the Superannuation Guarantee (Administration) Act 1992, reduce the charge percentage for that office holder to nil.

25 Superannuation salary for the purposes of CSS, PSS, DFRDB and MSBS

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), the superannuation salary for a Part 3 office holder who is a member of the CSS, PSS, DFRDB or MSBS is worked out in accordance with the following table (Table 3B).

Table 3B—Superannuation salary for the purposes of CSS, PSS, DFRDB and MSBS

| Item | If the Part 3 office holder's total remuneration is ... | the Part 3 office holder's superannuation salary is ... |
|------|---|---|
| 1 | $434,690 or more | 70% of the office holder's total remuneration (rounded up to the nearest $10). |
| 2 | less than $434,690 | 73% of the office holder's total remuneration (rounded up to the nearest $10). |

- (2) If an office or a Part 3 office holder is specified in column 1 of the following table (Table 3C), the amount in column 2 is the superannuation salary for the Part 3 office holder who holds that office, or for that Part 3 office holder.

Table 3C—Superannuation salary for specified Part 3 office holders

| Item | Column 1 Office or Part 3 office holder | Column 2 Superannuation salary |
|------|--|-----------------------------------|
| 1 | AAT—a Deputy President (non-judicial) who is covered by subsection (3) | $355,380 |
| 2 | National Native Title Tribunal—President (non-judicial) | $326,280 |
| 3 | National Native Title Tribunal—Deputy President | $307,390 |
| 4 | Military Justice System—Registrar of Military Justice | $232,640 |

Part 3 Full-time office holdersDivision 3 SuperannuationSection 25

- (3) A Deputy President (non-judicial) of the AAT is covered by this subsection if:
- (a) before the Deputy President's current term of appointment as Deputy President, the Deputy President had previously been appointed as Deputy President; and
 - (b) item 4 of Schedule 9 to the Tribunals Amalgamation Act 2015 applied to the Deputy President on 1 July 2015 during a previous term of appointment.

Division 4—Vehicles and other benefits26 Vehicles

- (1) If a Part 3 office holder:
 - (a) accepts an offer of a vehicle owned or leased by the office holder's authority for private use; or
 - (b) has access to a vehicle owned or leased by the office holder's authority for private use;
 the actual cost of the vehicle to the authority (including fringe benefits tax), less a reasonable amount (if any) reflecting business usage patterns, is taken to be a benefit.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1):
 - (a) if the annual business kilometres are less than 5,000—the business usage amount is to be based on the “cents per kilometre” method; or
 - (b) if the annual business kilometres are 5,000 or more:
 - (i) any business usage amount is to be assessed on log book records for at least a 12 week representative period; and
 - (ii) the percentage of business use to total kilometres travelled per year is to be applied to the total cost of the vehicle.

27 Vehicle parking

If a Part 3 office holder accepts an offer of a car park at Commonwealth expense, the actual cost (including fringe benefits tax) of the car park to the authority is taken to be a benefit.

28 Business support

If a Part 3 office holder is provided with communications, information technology or other office facilities necessary for the efficient conduct of the office holder's office, incidental private use of those facilities does not require the value of the facilities to be included in total remuneration.

29 Assistance for Chief Judge Advocates and the Registrar of Military Justice

The authority may approve housing, relocation and medical assistance in accordance with authority policy and practices for the offices of Chief Judge Advocate and the Registrar of Military Justice.

Note: Assistance under this section is not included as part of total remuneration: see paragraph 19(3)(c).

Part 3 Full-time office holdersDivision 5 Leave of absenceSection 30

Division 5—Leave of absence30 Leave of absence

- (1) A Part 3 office holder is entitled to the following types and amounts of leave of absence:
 - (a) an office holder may be absent without loss of pay on public holidays that are observed by the Australian Public Service in the location in which the office is based;
 - (b) paid recreation leave of 4 weeks per year of service, accruing on a pro rata basis;
 - (c) other paid and unpaid leave, including sick and carers' leave, at the discretion of the Commonwealth.
- (2) A Part 3 office holder may elect:
 - (a) to take recreation leave on a half-pay basis; or
 - (b) to cash out up to one week's recreation leave in a financial year.
- (3) A Part 3 office holder is to be paid the balance of their recreation leave on leaving office, calculated on the basis of the office holder's reference salary.
- (4) The Part 3 office holder's reference salary is the office holder's total remuneration, less the amount of total remuneration that reflects the employer superannuation contribution for the office holder.

31 Leave accumulated before commencement of this instrument

Any entitlement to recreation leave accrued by a Part 3 office holder before the commencement of this instrument is taken to have been accrued under this instrument.

Part 4—Part-time office holders

Division 1—Application of this Part

32 Application of this Part

This Part applies to a person (a Part 4 office holder) who:

- (a) holds an office specified in column 1 of Table 4A; and
- (b) was appointed to that office on a part-time basis.

Part 4 Part-time office holdersDivision 2 Daily fees, travel tiers and remuneration packagingSection 33

Division 2—Daily fees, travel tiers and remuneration packaging33 Payment of daily fee

- (1) A Part 4 office holder is entitled to be paid the daily fee specified in column 2 of Table 4A for the office held by the office holder.
- (2) The nature, reasonableness and duration of official business by the office holder is to be reviewed prior to the payment of any daily fee to the office holder, according to arrangements established by the authority.
- (3) The maximum amount payable to the office holder for any one day is the daily fee for the office holder.
- (4) Unless the authority determines otherwise, the minimum amount that may be claimed for payment at any one time is one daily fee, except that the final payment to any individual prior to leaving office may be less than one daily fee.

34 Calculation of daily fees for part-day work

- (1) This section applies to a Part 4 office holder who works for less than a full day.
Note: This section does not apply to a member of the AAT to whom section 38 or 39 apply.
- (2) On a formal meeting or hearing day, the following amounts of the office holder's daily fee are payable to the office holder:
 - (a) for a period of less than 2 hours—40% of the daily fee;
 - (b) for a period of between 2 and 3 hours—60% of the daily fee;
 - (c) for a period of 3 hours or more—100% of the daily fee.
- (3) On any other day, for each period of at least one hour spent entirely on authority business, the amount of the office holder's daily fee payable to the office holder is 20% of that daily fee for each hour, up to a maximum of 5 hours on any one day.
- (4) The periods of work mentioned in subsection (2) do not include any normal preparation time for a formal meeting or hearing. There is no additional payment for time spent on normal preparation. However, if extraordinary preparation time is required by the officer for the formal meeting or hearing, the authority may authorise an additional payment in accordance with subsection (3).
- (5) If the office holder is required to work at a location other than the office locality, any reasonable time required to travel between an office holder's home or usual place of work and the other location may be included by the authority in calculating payments under this section. Travel time between the office holder's home and usual place of work is not included for the purpose of calculation of payments.

35 Daily fees and travel tiers for Part 4 office holders

The following table (Table 4A) sets out, for a holder of each office in column 1:

Part-time office holders Part 4
Daily fees, travel tiers and remuneration packaging Division 2

Section 36

- (a) the daily fee for the Part 4 office holder; and
- (b) the special provisions (if any) of this instrument that apply to the Part 4 office holder; and
- (c) the travel tier that applies to the Part 4 office holder for the purposes of the official travel determination.

| Defence Force Discipline Appeal Tribunal—Member | $858 | | 1 |
| Australian Security Intelligence Organisation—prescribed authority | $1,514 | | 1 |

36 Remuneration packaging

A Part 4 office holder may elect to take, in lieu of the fee payable to the office holder under this Part, benefits or a combination of fee and benefits if:

- (a) the election is consistent with relevant taxation laws and rulings or guidelines applicable to salary packaging schemes issued by the Australian Taxation Office; and
- (b) providing the benefit would not result in a cost to the authority (including any fringe benefits tax) that would not be incurred if the office holder had received fees instead of the benefit.

Part 4 Part-time office holdersDivision 3 Special provisionsSection 37

Division 3—Special provisions37 Special provisions—alternative and additional remuneration for Part 4 office holders

- (1) If column 3 of Table 4A mentions this subsection in relation to an office mentioned in column 1, the minimum annual payment to the holder of the office is an amount that is 10 times the daily fee mentioned in column 2 in relation to the office.
- (2) If column 3 of Table 4A mentions this subsection in relation to an office mentioned in column 1, the holder of the office is entitled to an annual payment of $24,000 in addition to the daily fee mentioned in column 2 in relation to the office.

38 Special provisions—daily fees etc. for part-time AAT members

- (1) This section applies, and section 34 does not apply, to a member of the AAT on a part-time basis who is not covered by section 39.
- (2) A daily fee is payable once a member has undertaken official business of 7 hours duration in aggregate, regardless of the day or days on which that work is done.
- (3) Official business may include a hearing, preparation for a hearing, reading submissions, decision writing and travel time other than for travel between the person's home and principal place of work.
- (4) The member is to be paid a cancellation fee equal to an amount that is 50% of the daily fee if all of a day's work is cancelled with less than 5 working days' notice (this includes the circumstance where a hearing does not proceed on a day on which a member has attended).
- (5) The minimum annual payment to the member is 5 times the amount of the daily fee in Table 4A that applies to the member.

39 Special provisions—annual fees for certain part-time AAT members

- (1) This section applies, and sections 34 and 38 do not apply, to a member of the AAT on a part-time basis who is subject to:
 - (a) a direction under section 18A of the AAT Act by the President of the AAT to work a specified number of days each week for a continuous period of 12 months or more; or
 - (b) a direction under section 18A of the AAT Act by the President of the AAT to work a specified number of days each week for a period of less than 12 months if that period ends on the day that the person's appointment as a part-time member expires.
- (2) The following table (Table 4B) sets out, for the member who holds an office in column 1, the annual fee to be paid to the member based on the specified number of days each week the President of the AAT has directed the member to work.

Section 39

Table 4B—Annual fees for certain part-time AAT members

| Column 1 Office | Column 2 1 day each week | Column 3 2 days each week | Column 4 3 days each week | Column 5 4 days each week |
|----------------------------------|---|--|--|--|
| Deputy President | $82,760 | $165,520 | $248,280 | $331,040 |
| Senior member (level 1) | $65,330 | $130,660 | $195,990 | $261,320 |
| Senior member (level 2) | $54,990 | $109,980 | $164,970 | $219,960 |
| Member (level 1) | $41,570 | $83,140 | $124,710 | $166,280 |
| Member (level 2) | $36,950 | $73,900 | $110,850 | $147,800 |
| Member (level 3) | $32,340 | $64,680 | $97,020 | $129,360 |

(3) The annual fee payable to the member is payable on a periodic basis throughout each year and covers all activities undertaken by the member in performing the duties of the member's office.

(4) Part years are paid on a proportionate basis.

Part 5 Official travelSection 40

Part 5—Official travel40 Official travelJustices of the High Court*

- (1) A Justice of the High Court (including the Chief Justice) who does not establish a place of residence in Canberra is to be paid $34,160 a year in lieu of the travelling allowance that would otherwise be payable to the Justice under the official travel determination.

President of the Fair Work Commission

- (2) The President of the Fair Work Commission has the same travel entitlements when travelling within Australia as the Chief Justice of the Federal Court has under the official travel determination.

Part 6—Arrangements for transitional AAT members

41 Application of this Part

This Part applies to a member of the AAT (a transitional AAT member) to whom item 4 of Schedule 9 to the Tribunals Amalgamation Act 2015 applies.

Note: Item 4 of Schedule 9 to the Tribunals Amalgamation Act 2015 applies to a member of the AAT (other than a Judge) who was a member of the AAT immediately before 1 July 2015.

42 Continued operation of the transitional determination

- (1) Subject to this Part, Determination 2015/05 – Judicial and Related Offices – Remuneration and Allowances (the transitional determination) continues to apply to a transitional AAT member as if the repeal of that instrument did not happen.
- (2) Apart from this Part, this instrument does not apply to a transitional AAT member.

43 Modified remuneration for transitional AAT members

Full-time transitional AAT members

- (1) Table 3 of the transitional determination has effect as if the amounts for the base salary and total remuneration in that table for a transitional AAT member who is a Deputy President of the AAT were the amounts set out in the following table.

| Table 6A—Full-time transitional AAT members | | |
|---|-------------|--------------------|
| Office | Base salary | Total remuneration |
| Deputy President | $355,380 | $486,820 |

Part-time daily fees for transitional AAT members

- (2) Table 2A of the transitional determination has effect as if the amounts for part-time office daily fees in that table for a transitional AAT member who is:
 - (a) a Deputy President of the AAT; or
 - (b) a Senior member of the AAT; or
 - (c) a member of the AAT;
 were the amounts set out in the following table.

| Table 6B—Part-time daily fees for transitional AAT members | |
|--|----------------------------|
| Office | Part-time office daily fee |
| Deputy President | $1,642 |
| Senior member | $1,299 |

| Member | $54,990 | $109,980 | $164,970 | $219,960 |

44 Additional remuneration for certain part-time transitional AAT members

- (1) This section applies to a transitional AAT member to whom subsection 43(2) applies.
- (2) The minimum annual payment to the member is 10 times the amount of the daily fee in Table 2A of the transitional determination, as modified by subsection 43(2), that applies to the member.
- (3) Subsection (2) applies to the member, whether the member receives a part-time daily fee or an hourly rate under clause 2.4 of the transitional determination.
- (4) The member is to be paid a cancellation fee equal to an amount that is 50% of the daily fee if all of a day's work is cancelled with less than 5 working days' notice (this includes the circumstance where a hearing does not proceed on a day on which a member has attended).

45 Other modifications for transitional AAT members*Travel tier*

- (1) For the purposes of the official travel determination, travel tier 1 applies to a transitional AAT member.
- (2) Subsection (1) applies despite any provision of the transitional determination.

Section 45*Review of official business before payment*

- (3) Despite clause 2.5.4(ii) of the transitional determination, subsection 33(2) of this instrument applies to a transitional AAT member.

TALKING POINTS

- Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II has approved my recommendation to appoint His Excellency General the Honourable David Hurley AC DSC (Ret'd) as Australia's next Governor-General.
- He will be Australia's 27th Governor-General.
- The Governor-General has important constitutional responsibilities. As representative of the Crown, the Governor-General's task is to provide leadership beyond politics and support and encouragement to Australians the length and breadth of the country.
- As he has done in his role as Governor of NSW for the last four years, General Hurley will carry out his duties as the Queen's representative in Australia with vigour and integrity.
- The new Governor-General will take up the appointment on 28 June 2019.
- Governor-General Peter Cosgrove has graciously agreed to extend his appointment to allow General Hurley to discharge his responsibilities as Governor of New South Wales until that time.
- On behalf of all Australians, I thank the Governor-General for the outstanding contribution he has made since his appointment in 2014.
- General Cosgrove has provided Australians with exceptional service and leadership during his tenure, undertaking his duties as Governor-General with grace, exceptional service and leadership. He has represented our country and our people with distinction and pride both here and abroad.
- General Cosgrove will remain a well-regarded national figure.
- I wish him and Mrs Cosgrove well for the future.
- I congratulate General Hurley on his appointment.

Biography of His Excellency General the Honourable David Hurley AC DSC (Retd)

His Excellency General the Honourable David Hurley AC DSC (Ret'd), is the 38th Governor of New South Wales. He commenced his five year tenure in October 2014.

Prior to his appointment as Governor, His Excellency served for 42 years in the Australian Army, concluding his service as the Chief of the Defence Force. His Excellency was appointed a Companion within the Order of Australia in 2010 for eminent service to the Australian Defence Force, and was awarded the Distinguished Service Cross for his leadership during Operation SOLACE in Somalia in 1993.

His Excellency is married to Linda and has three adult children: Caitlin, Marcus and Amelia. He has a wide range of interests in the arts and in sport.

Hi s 22(1)(a)(ii)

I just tried to give you a call.

I have made some enquiries and the media release was part of a pack the Prime Minister approved prior to it being sent to the Palace. I have been advised that because it has been approved by the Palace and they have crafted their statement based on what the PM has agreed to say, that it would be inappropriate to make significant changes to the text. s 33(a)(iii)

I have attached an updated version of the TPs.

Give me a call if you want to talk it through.

Cheers,

All,

Please see below final version of the statement the PM has approved for tomorrow.

AUSTRALIA'S NEW GOVERNOR-GENERAL

Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II has approved my recommendation to appoint His Excellency General the Honourable David Hurley AC DSC (Retd) as Australia's next Governor-General.

General Hurley will be Australia's 27th Governor-General.

General Hurley is currently the Governor of New South Wales, having been appointed to the role in October 2014.

He has been a very popular Governor of NSW. From his weekly boxing workouts with Indigenous children as part of the Tribal Warriors program to his frequent regional trips, Governor Hurley is known for being generous and approachable to old and young alike.

General Hurley will be sworn in on 28 June 2019, to allow for the fulfillment of his duties as Governor of New South Wales.

Her Majesty The Queen has agreed to extend the appointment of the current Governor-General, His Excellency General the Honourable Sir Peter Cosgrove AK MC (Retd), until that time.

Prior to his appointment as Governor of New South Wales, General Hurley served in the Australian Army for 42 years, including as the Chief of the Defence Force from 2011 to 2014.

He was appointed a Companion of the Order of Australia in 2010 for eminent service to the Australian Defence Force and was awarded the Distinguished Service Cross for his leadership during Operation SOLACE in Somalia in 1993.

General Hurley and Mrs Hurley have been married for 41 years and they have three adult children: Caitlin, Marcus and Amelia.

The Governor-General holds office at the pleasure of The Queen, however the term is usually understood to be five years.

General Cosgrove has discharged his duties to date with distinction and grace and I thank him for agreeing to continue in the role to assist in the transition.
