OFFICIAL

Good afternoon s 22(1)(a)(ii)

Thank you for your call and clarifying your proposal. Parliamentarians as able to use the Arms in the course of their duties including constituent engagement.

There is no issue with the use of the Arms on an award as you propose but you would need to ensure that you mention Keith Wolahan MP as the Parliamentarian presenting the award on it. Otherwise it is unclear why the Arms are on the award.

Something like 'presented by Keith Wolahan MP' or 'presented by the Federal Member for Menzies' would be our suggestion.

I trust that this information is of assistance.

Regards,

Hi s 22(1)(a)(ii)
Thanks for your time on the phone

Just following up with the specifics of our proposal for the use of the Commonwealth Coat of Arms on plaques and awards that we will be giving to students as part of our Menzies Shield Initiative. There will be no use of Liberal Party or any other insignia.

We would like to use the black and white coat of arms attached.

For the black plaque, we would centralise and place it at the top (no other insignia)

The text would be roughly:

Line 1 – Presented to (STUDENT NAME)

Line 2 – (SCHOOL NAME)

Line 3 – Menzies Shield Recipient 2022

For the Glass perpetual, similar deal, instead of the fish, coat of arms

The text would just be roughly:

Perhaps on the wooden bit: (SCHOOL NAME)

In Blank Space: (STUDENT NAME, 2022)

Please let me know when possible – ideally we'd like to send off this order within the next few days

Cheers
