Hello,

I'm a journalist with Intelligence Online which is an online publication based in France and dedicated to news about intelligence in a broad sense – from government intelligence and national security to corporate intelligence worldwide.

I was wondering if you had an update on the release of an unclassified version of the Independent Intelligence Review which was reportedly completed on 30 June 2024.

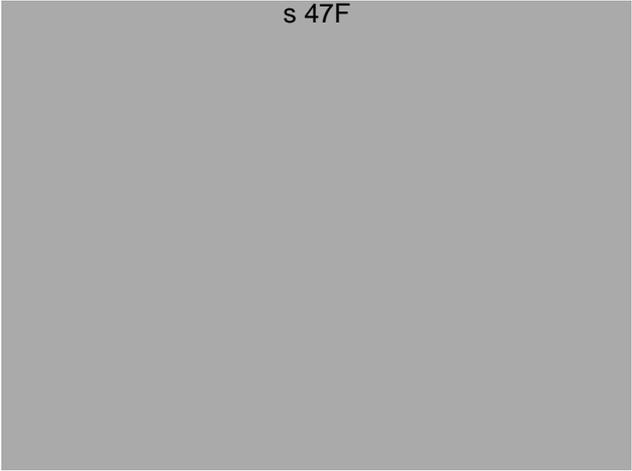

Also, could you provide some details about how and when the Government is expected to respond to the Review's recommendations?

Any comment, either on or off the record, would be greatly appreciated.

Thanks in advance for your response.
