Repeal of amending and repealing instruments containing other provisions Schedule 3

Schedule 3—Repeal of amending and repealing instruments containing other provisions

Guide to this Schedule

This Schedule repeals amending and repealing legislative instruments that also contain application, saving or transitional provisions. The amendments and repeals have happened, and the application, saving or transitional provisions are no longer required. The instruments do not contain any other substantive provisions.

To assist the reader, the location of each application, saving or transitional provision in an instrument is identified in brackets after its name, with 's' used to indicate the provision (e.g. 's. 4' may refer to section 4, regulation 4, clause 4 or the fourth provision of some other type as appropriate).

The repeal of an instrument by this Schedule does not affect any amendment or repeal made by the instrument: see paragraph 7(2)(a). Also, to ensure that the repeal of the application, saving or transitional provisions does not have any unforeseen effect, and to remove any doubt that may otherwise exist, any continuing operation they may have is preserved: see paragraph 7(2)(b).

Guide to this Schedule

This Schedule repeals legislative instruments that are spent or no longer required, and that are not covered by the previous Schedules.

More information about why the instruments are spent or no longer required is provided in the explanatory statement accompanying this regulation.

The repeal of an instrument by this Schedule does not affect any amendment or repeal made by the instrument: see paragraph 8(2)(a). Also, to ensure that the repeal of the application, saving or transitional provisions does not have any unforeseen effect, and to remove any doubt that may otherwise exist, any continuing operation they may have is preserved: see paragraph 8(2)(b).

Before the Governor-General makes a regulation for the purposes of subsection 48(1) of the LIA, subsection 48(2) of the LIA requires that the Attorney-General must be satisfied that the legislative instrument or provision to be repealed by the regulation is spent or is no longer required.

The proposed Regulation would repeal 1 005 legislative instruments administered by the Attorney-General that are spent or redundant. Schedule 1 would repeal solely amending and repealing instruments. Schedule 2 would repeal commencement instruments. Schedule 3 would repeal amending and repealing instruments that contain application, saving or transitional provisions. Schedule 4 would repeal any other instruments that are no longer required.

The purpose of the proposed Regulation is to 'tidy up' the Federal Register of Legislative Instruments (the FRLI). The instruments that would be repealed by the proposed Regulation have no ongoing legal effect or are no longer required. It is unnecessary for these instruments to remain on the FRLI.

The proposed Regulation will not undo anything done by the instruments to be repealed and will not impact on existing rights and duties.

The express power to make the proposed Regulation was inserted into the LIA by the Legislative Instruments Amendment (Sweeping Measures) Act 2012 on 25 September 2012.

EXPLANATORY MEMORANDUM

Minute No. 11 of 2013 – Attorney-General

Subject - Legislative Instruments Act 2003

Attorney-General's (Spent and Redundant Instruments) Repeal Regulation 2013

Under section 62 of the Legislative Instruments Act 2003 (the LIA), the Governor-General may make regulations prescribing all matters required or permitted by the LIA to be prescribed, or necessary or convenient to be prescribed for carrying out or giving effect to the LIA.

Under subsection 48E(1) of the LIA, regulations made under the LIA may repeal a legislative instrument or provision of a legislative instrument.

Before the Governor-General makes a regulation for the purposes of subsection 48E(1) of the LIA, subsection 48E(2) of the LIA requires that the Attorney-General must be satisfied that the legislative instrument or provision to be repealed by the regulation is spent or is no longer required.

The proposed Regulation would repeal 1 005 legislative instruments administered by the Attorney-General that are spent or redundant. Schedule 1 would repeal solely amending and repealing instruments. Schedule 2 would repeal commencement instruments. Schedule 3 would repeal amending and repealing instruments that contain application, saving or transitional provisions. Schedule 4 would repeal any other instruments that are no longer required.

The purpose of the proposed Regulation is to 'tidy up' the Federal Register of Legislative Instruments (the FRLI). The instruments that would be repealed by the proposed Regulation have no ongoing legal effect or are no longer required. It is unnecessary for these instruments to remain on the FRLI.

The proposed Regulation will not undo anything done by the instruments to be repealed and will not impact on existing rights and duties.

The express power to make the proposed Regulation was inserted into the LIA by the Legislative Instruments Amendment (Sunsetting Measures) Act 2012 on 23 September 2012. The power permits bulk repeal of spent and redundant legislative instruments by regulation. The power was inserted into the LIA in response to recommendation 14 of the 2008 Review of the LIA and the finding of Department of Finance and Deregulation's Review of pre-2008 Commonwealth subordinate legislation and other regulation that a large number of legislative instruments on the FRLI are probably spent or redundant.

The instruments that would be repealed by the proposed Regulation would remain accessible by navigating to the historical section of the Comlaw website.

s 22(1)(a)(ii)

The proposed Regulation would be a legislative instrument for the purposes of the LIA.

The proposed Regulation would commence on the day after it is registered.

The Minute recommends that the Regulation be made in the form proposed.

I am satisfied that the legislative instruments which would be repealed by the Attorney-General's (Spent and Redundant Instruments) Repeal Regulation 2013 are spent or no longer required.

Minute No. 8 of 2014 – Attorney-General

Subject - Legislative Instruments Act 2003

Various regulations repealing spent and redundant instruments

Under section 62 of the Legislative Instruments Act 2003 (the LIA), the Governor-General may make regulations prescribing all matters required or permitted by the LIA to be prescribed, or necessary or convenient to be prescribed for carrying out or giving effect to the LIA.

Under subsection 48E(1) of the LIA, regulations made under the LIA may repeal a legislative instrument or provision of a legislative instrument. Before the Governor-General makes a Regulation for the purposes of subsection 48E(1) of the LIA, subsection 48E(2) of the LIA requires that the Attorney-General must be satisfied that the legislative instrument or provision to be repealed by the Regulation is spent or is no longer required.

The Immigration and Border Protection (Spent and Redundant Instruments) Repeal Regulation 2014 would repeal 270 legislative instruments administered by the Department of Immigration and Border Protection that are spent or redundant.

The Infrastructure and Regional Development (Spent and Redundant Instruments) Repeal Regulation 2014 would repeal 774 legislative instruments administered by the Department of Infrastructure and Regional Development that are spent or redundant.

The Social Services (Spent and Redundant Instruments) Repeal Regulation 2014 would repeal 287 legislative instruments administered by the Department of Social Services that are spent or redundant.

s 22(1)(a)(ii)

The Veterans' Affairs (Spent and Redundant Instruments) Repeal Regulation 2014 would repeal 336 legislative instruments administered by the Department of Veterans' Affairs that are spent or redundant.

The Spent and Redundant Instruments Repeal Regulation 2014 would repeal 220 legislative instruments administered by multiple agencies and departments that are spent or redundant. This includes legislative instruments that have not been included in any other portfolio specific repeal Regulation already made or proposed to be made on this day. The Regulation would also repeal legislative instruments for which multiple portfolios are responsible.

The instruments to be repealed include amending and repealing instruments, commencement instruments, amending and repealing instruments that contain application, saving or transitional provisions, and any other instruments that are no longer required.

The purpose of the proposed regulations is to 'tidy up' the Federal Register of Legislative Instruments (the FRLI). The instruments that would be repealed by the proposed Regulation have no ongoing legal effect or are no longer required. It is unnecessary for these instruments to remain on the FRLI.

The proposed regulations would not undo anything done by the instruments to be repealed and will not impact on existing rights and duties.

The express power to make the proposed regulations was inserted into the LIA by the Legislative Instruments Amendment (Sunsetting Measures) Act 2012 on 23 September 2012. The power permits bulk repeal of spent and redundant legislative instruments by regulation. The power was inserted into the LIA in response to recommendation 14 of the 2008 Review of the LIA and the finding of the (former) Department of Finance and Deregulation's Review of pre-2008 Commonwealth subordinate legislation and other regulation that a large number of legislative instruments on the FRLI are probably spent or redundant.

The instruments that would be repealed by the proposed regulations would remain accessible by navigating to the historical section of the Comlaw website.

The proposed regulations would be legislative instruments for the purposes of the LIA.

The proposed regulations would commence on the day after they are registered.

The Minute recommends that the regulations be made in the form proposed.

I am satisfied that the legislative instruments which would be repealed by the regulations listed above are spent or no longer required.

Schedule 3—Repeal of amending and repealing instruments containing other provisions

Guide to this Schedule

This Schedule repeals amending and repealing legislative instruments that also contain application, saving or transitional provisions. The amendments and repeals have happened, and the application, saving or transitional provisions are no longer required. The instruments do not contain any other substantive provisions.

To assist the reader, the location of each application, saving or transitional provision in an instrument is identified in brackets after its name, with “s” used to indicate the provision (e.g. “s. 4” may refer to section 4, regulation 4, clause 4 or the fourth provision of some other type as appropriate).

The repeal of an instrument by this Schedule does not affect any amendment or repeal made by the instrument: see paragraph 7(2)(a). Also, to ensure that the repeal of the application, saving or transitional provisions does not have any unforeseen effect, and to remove any doubt that may otherwise exist, any continuing operation they may have is preserved: see paragraph 7(2)(b).
