Good afternoon s 22(1)(a)(ii)

How are you going since leaving PM&C?

Our A/g Assistant Secretary – s 22(1)(a)(ii) – suggested that we touch base with you. She thought that you were working in the NACC education area.

As we try and build our knowledge and capability, we were wondering if we could do a Teams call and talk through some different scenarios and see whether the NACC has or is planning any guidance for these situations.

Look forward to hearing back from you.

Hi § 22(1)(a)

Thanks so much for meeting with us today and sharing this fact sheet.

In relation to our query we are wondering if the NACC has any standard words that can be used when members of the public state that the NACC are investigating a matter. We have many people who write to the department – about matters not relating to PM&C – hoping that PM&C will take carriage of their complaint / tip off. Sometimes people use active language like ‘the NACC or some other authority are investigating’ to try and draw us into the matter. Is there any standard words we can use in replying to members of the public about NACC investigations?

In the above scenario, does the NACC have any guidance for entities on their responsibilities relating to a tip off received from a third party, which does not relate to that entity? For instance, are entities required to confirm with the NACC that it is aware of the matter or can entities leave that up to the individual reporting the concern? What about anonymous tip offs – where there is no contact details provided to re-direct the individual – are entities required to share allegations of corruption with the NACC, even if the allegation doesn’t relate to that entity?

Hope this makes sense and happy to discuss further.

Kind regards

As there are situations where fraud and corruption overlap, we wondered if we could arrange for a presentation to coincide with International Fraud Awareness Week (November 17-23, 2024)? Please let us know if this is too short notice.

Again, it's so nice to have you return. I hope you've had a kind welcome back to work.

I had a really good chat with s 22(1)(a)(ii) from the NACC. She's indicated that having a guest speaker during International Fraud Awareness week is an absolute potential and is going to source diary availability of the Commissioner and deputy. In the case that neither of them are available, she will contact us to discuss options.

She's provided a form that we're required to complete – I will fill it in and forward for your consideration.

We can chat more regarding details at our catch up tomorrow.

Good afternoon s 22(1)(a)(ii)

I can't keep up with how quickly the year is passing us by!

I am aware that s 22(1)(a) has discussed the idea of having the NACC Commissioner visit PM&C, perhaps during International Fraud Awareness Week 2024 which isn't far away.

It sounds great and I am hoping to grab half an hour of your time to talk about what is required. Sometime before the end of the week would be ideal.

Happy to organise a Teams link if that's easiest – just let me know.

With many thanks.

Regards

Hi s 22(1)(a)(ii)

Just wanting a little more information on the process of engaging the NACC Commissioner or one of the Deputy Commissioners to do a presentation at PM&C. We would like to know:

- Is there a form that needs to be completed and does it require SES sponsorship?
- What topics are the NACC currently discussing with departments?
- What is the general length of a presentation?

As there are situations where fraud and corruption overlap, we wondered if we could arrange for a presentation to coincide with International Fraud Awareness Week (November 17-23, 2024)? Please let us know if this is too short notice.

Happy to discuss.

Hi s 22(1)(a)

Good news – we can have Deputy Commissioner Nicole Rose from the NACC for our IFAW presentation.

They have outlined availability for the session below. I recommend going with Tuesday 19 November, around 1400-1500 – but do let me know your thoughts.

Once we have confirmed a time, let's discuss how we would like the session to look and then I can start to develop a communications plan (for the presentation + IFAW).

Thanks heaps,

To answer your queries below:

- Peta has approved for her session to be live-streamed (i.e. via Teams or Webex), however, does not provide approval for the event to be recorded.

We would be grateful if you could please confirm:

- The address – we have it as 1 National Circuit, is this correct?
- Can we also please check whether parking is available? Is there a visitor parking space that can be reserved for Peta?

Thank you for working with us, it's really appreciated,
