

s 22(1)(a)(ii)

If asked about caps on superannuation tax breaks:

s 22(1)(a)(ii)

- These changes will not affect the majority of women in Australia, who will continue to benefit from concessional taxation.
 - However, in 2019-20, men benefited more from concessional taxation of superannuation earnings than women.¹
 - 61 per cent of beneficiaries were men, while 39 per cent of beneficiaries were women.
 - People in higher taxable income deciles receive a larger share of the benefit due to having larger superannuation balances and paying higher marginal tax rates.
